

Lottery Tuition Assistance

Academic Year 2006-2007

Is eligibility based on income or need?

No, Lottery Tuition Assistance is not based on income or need. However, in calculating the amount awarded in Lottery Tuition Assistance, federal grants and the SC Need-based Grant must be awarded first.

How do I apply for Lottery Tuition Assistance?

The first step to apply for Lottery Tuition Assistance is to complete and file the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) form. You may complete the FAFSA form online at <http://www.fafsa.ed.gov/> or obtain a paper copy at the college's financial aid office. The student should contact the institutional financial aid office as well. This office will advise the student of any additional steps that are necessary to be considered for Lottery Tuition Assistance.

Certain students are exempt from completing the FAFSA. These students include: students who have already earned a bachelor's degree, students who are enrolled in a program that is not eligible for Title IV aid, dually enrolled students and students who cannot obtain their parents' tax information. These students will be required to complete a FAFSA Waiver and possibly provide other documentation. Please contact your institution's financial aid office if you think you meet one of the above exemptions.

If I have already been awarded a college degree, am I eligible to receive Lottery Tuition Assistance?

Yes, you may use Lottery Tuition Assistance for additional training or toward another certificate, diploma, or degree.

Once a student completes a certificate, diploma or degree, is he or she still eligible for Lottery Assistance Tuition for another certificate, degree or diploma?

According to the established legislation, students are not eligible to receive Lottery Tuition Assistance for more than one certificate, diploma, or degree earned within any five-year period unless the additional certificate, diploma, or degree constitutes progress in the same field of study. A certificate or diploma earned that relates to the associate's degree constitutes the same field of study.

Are there specific criteria I must meet in order to retain eligibility to participate in the Program?

- File the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) form and complete the process to determine eligibility for federal student aid each academic year (unless you meet one of the FAFSA exemption criteria);
- Maintain satisfactory academic progress toward completion of a certificate, diploma or degree;
- After attempting 24 credit hours, earn a minimum 2.0 cumulative grade point average on a

4.0 scale for graduation purposes by the end of each academic year (fall, spring, summer terms); and

- Continue to meet all general eligibility requirements annually.

What exactly will Lottery Tuition Assistance help pay for?

Lottery Tuition Assistance will be applied to the cost of tuition only. It will not cover the cost of textbooks, housing, transportation, etc.

Will the lottery tuition assistance pay for non-credit courses?

No.

Will Lottery Tuition Assistance pay for remedial classes?

Students enrolled in an eligible program of study as stated in the “Program Definitions” section of the regulations may include remedial courses as part of the minimum number of required credit hours for part-time or full-time status, as long as such courses carry credit hours and meet Title IV limitations on remedial coursework.

If I receive a private Scholarship, will it be used to determine the amount awarded of Lottery Tuition Assistance?

No.

What happens if I want to transfer my Lottery Tuition Assistance from one institution to another?

To find out if you qualify for Lottery Tuition Assistance at another two-year institution, you must check with the institution’s financial aid office that you will be transferring to.

Will I be eligible to receive Lottery Tuition Assistance in the summer if I receive all of my Pell Grant eligibility in the fall and spring semesters?

Yes.
